Internet Safety

You may have heard your children talking about "the Momo Challenge." Social media and news outlets are buzzing about this topic, and students are talking about it with their friends. There is little evidence that the Momo Challenge is worth worrying too much over; it seems to be more of an urban legend. This isn't the first, and won't be the last, that we see something of this nature. However, this does bring to light the importance of internet safety. At school, we are educating students about internet safety and the importance of informing an adult when they encounter something on their device that concerns them. At home, you can talk with your children about the importance of internet safety, and monitor their devices and their activities.

Here are a couple of articles of interest related to this issue:

Announcements/Reminders

- Remember to support our PTO by choosing them as your charitable organization on Amazon Smile. ☺ Contact Connie Jarzynka at cjarzynka4@gmail.com if you have questions.
- If you pick up your child on 'N' Street after school, please remember to stay in your vehicle or find a side street/parking stall. When vehicles are parked and left along 'N' Street, traffic flow is interrupted.
- Elementary children who ride home with junior high/high school siblings are to wait in the cafeteria until 3:45 each day. This ensures that all children are safe and supervised. Thank you for your understanding.
- Celebrate good behavior and effort! Talk with your child each day to celebrate PAWsitive choices. Teachers often write notes in daily planners to explain why students earn purple or red.
- Send Box Tops to school with your child anytime!
